Prayer to the Most Holy Trinity

All-Holy Trinity, have mercy on us.

Lord, cleanse us
from our sins.
Master, pardon our iniquities. Holy God, visit and heal
our infirmities for Thy Name's sake.

Trinity Sunday

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's Ascension the Holy Spirit, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His Resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF OUR FAITH

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today’s solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the great treasures of the Eastern tradition is the icon of the Holy Trinity created by the Russian iconographer Andrei Rublev in the 1400s. The Trinity is symbolized by the three travelers to the tent of Abraham and Sarah. They are seated at a table blessing a cup of wine, under the oak of Mamre. If you look closely, you will see a sacrificed calf in the chalice, reminding the viewer of the cross. The table, prepared for eating and tilted toward the viewer, is an invitation to the Eucharist. From left to right, each figure is keyed to a person of the Trinity. Like all icons, this image is theology in art. The persons are equal in proportion and dignity, they all carry staffs to symbolize their power, and are shown with golden wings and halos. Today, the best place to see Rublev’s work is the Holy Trinity Cathedral, at the heart of the vast Holy Trinity monastery about an hour from Moscow. After decades of persecution, it is now once again a living monastery, a world heritage site, and the spiritual home of Russian Orthodoxy. A Google visit is highly recommended today! Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Thursday , May 31st—Gospel Luke 1:39 - 56

Mary set out
 And traveled to the hill country in haste
 to a town of Judah,
 where she entered the house of Zechariah
 and greeted Elizabeth.
 When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting,
 the infant leaped in her womb,
 and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit,
 cried out in a loud voice and said,
 “Most blessed are you among women,
 and blessed is the fruit of your womb.
 And how does this happen to me,
 that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
 For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears,
 The infant in my womb leaped for joy.
 Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.”

And Mary said:
 “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord;
 my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
 for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
 From this day all generations will call me blessed:
 the Almighty has done great things for me,
 and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him
 In every generation.
 He has shown the strength of his arm,
 he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
 He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
 and has lifted up the lowly.
 He has filled the hungry with good things,
 And the rich he has sent away empty.
 He has come to the help of his servant Israel
 for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
 the promise he made to our fathers,
 to Abraham and his children forever.”

Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

34th Annual Volunteer Recognition Dinner

Catholic Charities is an organization committed to manifesting Christ's spirit through collaboration with diverse communities, by providing services to the poor and vulnerable, by promoting human dignity, and by advocating for social justice.

This year's Volunteer Recognition Dinner was held on Monday, May 7th, 2018. Each year the San Gabriel Region honors distinguished parish volunteers. This year St. Louise de Marillac honored:

Joseph Diaz: Joseph Diaz has been a parishioner of St. Louise de Marillac for 23 years and has been serving as an usher for all 23 years. Joseph was inspired to become part of the Usher Ministry through prayer. He belongs to the following ministries: Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Sacristan, Filipino Ministry, Knights of Columbus, and Living Stations. In the future, Joseph would like to see a full and dedicated set of ministers in every Mass. He says, "It is my hope that we create a space that encourages more, younger generations to become involved and strengthen their faith and relationship with God." Joseph maintains a close relationship with his 3 siblings and their families.

Ron Lasmarias: Ron Lasmarias and his family have been active parishioners at St. Louise de Marillac for over 12 years. Ron sees ushering as an opportunity to serve God, by serving God's people, and to actively and faithfully participate in the Church service. Ron is also involved in the Filipino Ministry. Ron says, "The definition of an usher means door keeper but in truth, our church greatly depends on diversity and magnitude of the many services ushers provide. Together with church greeters and hospitality hosts, church ushers help the church members and visitors to be comfortable in their surroundings and have a positive experience." Ron's goal is to build a great Usher Ministry that would have an enormous impact both in meeting the needs of the people and in helping the church services run smoothly, effectively and efficiently. Ron says, "I am so blessed to have a good and loving family. I believe that our regular Mass attendance has been the glue keeping us together for the past 16 years. It has supported our faith and provided a framework for our family."

Michael and Theresa Lee: Mike Lee joined the St. Louise de Marillac family in 1987 when he moved to Covina with his first wife and a two year old child. After being a widower for a time, he married Terry. Mike says "Once I retired from Police work, I was looking for a way to be more involved with our parish." About that time, Terry retired from 22 years of teaching. Both Mike and Terry were ready to share greater involvement in their faith community. Mike says, "Fr. Robert approached us and asked if we could lead the Hospitality Ministry. Terry and I were excited to be a part of a new plan and readily accepted."

Pam Gautreau: Pam Gautreau has been a parishioner at St. Louise de Marillac since 1998. She and her husband were married 24 years ago, shortly after Pam became a Catholic at the Easter Vigil. Pam was encouraged to check out the Hospitality Ministry by Deacon Al Valles, after she told him that she wanted to do something for the parish since being semi-retired. Deacon Al mentioned the "new" ministry at St. Louise and told her to just go to the meeting and check it out. Pam was immediately hooked and took on a leading role. She says, "I have already seen the difference in the parishioners since we started this ministry." "Parishioners enjoy being greeted and acknowledged when they attend Mass, it brings a homey feel to the parish."

In addition to honoring the parish volunteers, this year's Catholic Charities Dinner also honored St. Louise de Marillac and Fr. Robert Fulton for giving generously of themselves in service of the poor in the San Gabriel Region. Fr. Robert Fulton received the 2018 Spirit of Caring Award. Fr. Fulton first began working with Catholic Charities when he was at St. Madeleine's in Pomona, "Serving the poor is central to my Christian vocation. Fr. Robert is very supportive of St. Vincent de Paul ministry, has invited Catholic Charities to come speak to raise awareness and funds at St. Louise de Marillac and has consistently supported the McGill Transitional Home of Covina and other Catholic Charities ministries.

PARISH OFFICE CLOSED

The world needs leaders. Leaders head families, coach teams, run businesses and mentor others. These leaders must not only accomplish, they must communicate. By regularly giving speeches, gaining feedback, leading teams and guiding others to achieve their goals in a supportive atmosphere, leaders emerge from the Toastmasters program. Every Toastmasters journey begins with a single speech. During their journey, they learn to tell their stories. They listen and answer. They plan and lead. They give feedback—and accept it. Through our community of learners, they find their path to leadership.

As an international non-profit organization Toastmasters has created charismatic leaders and poised speakers since 1924. Join us on Friday, June 15th from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm in the Eighth Grade classroom, to discover the difference Toastmaster can make in your ambitions and goals.

DID YOU KNOW?

Talk to your teens about handling workplace violence.

Many teens will get their first job while still in high school. Building a work ethic is a great and necessary skill, but teens need to be informed about how best to handle possible workplace violence. Coworkers are not always thoroughly screened, and your teen could face another employee’s rage or anger that could possibly put them in danger. Talk to your teens about warning signs—short tempers, intimidation, drug use—and about how to remove themselves when they feel unsafe in a situation, and how to report any concerns they have, to a safe adult. For a copy of the complete VIRTUS® article “What Can You Do to Help Prevent Workplace Violence?” visit <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>
