St. Louise de Marillac is a Roman Catholic community called together as family to worship, to minister, and to evangelize. As true disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to renew His love and spirit by sharing our time, talent and treasure.

St. Louise de Marillac Mission Statement

Nine Ways to Pray

THE NEWSPAPER PRAYER: Look through a print or online newspaper to find a news article about an issue that affects your community or the world. Bring the article with you to a quiet place where you can pray. Think about how human dignity is affected by the issue or situation. Pray for God's healing and transformation for all people impacted, lawmakers, and others. Ask God how he is asking you to respond to this issue.

BECOMING A CHARACTER IN THE PARABLES: Read slowly one of the following Gospel readings: John 5:1-15; Luke 8:40-56; Mark 1:40-45; or Mt. 20:29-34. Then read it again, imagining that you are the character in the story with whom Jesus interacts. Imagine how it would be to be in that character's place. How do you feel before you meet Jesus? How do you feel physically (what do all five senses experience in that time and place?), emotionally, and spiritually? What happens when you encounter Jesus? What is that experience like? Imagine every detail of the story. Next, imagine the story again in your mind, but this time, substitute a modern-day person, for example, someone who is homeless or a person who is sick with cancer or AIDS but has no health insurance. Let this exercise lead you into prayer for real people who are suffering in the world. Pray for justice and for realization of your role in making justice a reality.

JOURNALING: Pray for understanding and the grace to respond to God's call, while you write in your prayer journal.

A.C.T.S.: This acronym stands for Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication. You can use the acronym to help you pray for those who are poor and vulnerable and for help in discerning how to respond. Adoration: Praise God for his love for humanity, and for creating each human being with dignity. Express wonder for life and beauty, and the basic goodness of human beings. Confession: Express your sorrow for an issue—a collective or social sin of humanity — that is facing the world today. This could include poverty, abortion, environmental destruction, or another issue. Take a moment to also recognize how you may have participated in the collective sin or issue, perhaps by your failure to do something about it. Thanksgiving: Thank God for his forgiveness and for maintaining hope in the world and in humans despite our failures. Express thanks for the talents that God has given humans and the inspiration to use these talents to address issues like the one you have mentioned. Supplication: Supplication is another word for intercession, or asking. Ask God to help bring about a positive solution to the issue you have identified – for an end to the social injustice. Ask him to help you see how you are called to be involved in addressing the issue. Invite the Spirit into your heart to inspire you.

THE MAP PRAYER: On a map or globe, pick a country with which you are not very familiar. Spend some quiet prayer time praying for the people in those countries.

JUST LISTENING: For many of the holiest people in history, listening was a major part of their prayer. Find a quiet place where you will not be disturbed for 10-15 minutes. Sit or kneel in a comfortable, upright position. Take several deep breaths and be aware of the air coming in and out of your lungs and notice the quiet around you. Ask God what he would like to tell you and the world about the social issues you are concerned about. Try to sense God's love and other feelings for you, your community and the world.

THE OLD TESTAMENT PROPHETS AND YOU: In a quiet place where you will not be disturbed, read slowly one of the following readings from the Old Testament: Jer. 1:4-10 and 22:1-3; or Is. 58. In silence, prayerfully consider the following questions: What stands out to you about the reading? What was God saying to his people through the prophet? What might the reading mean for the world today? Are you open to being a modern day prophet? What message might God be calling you to proclaim? Ask God to be with you and to guide you as you reflect on these questions. Pray for the strength to respond to whatever God might be asking of you.

THE PRAYER BOX: Using a shoe box or another similarly-sized box, create your own personal prayer box. On small slips of paper, write issues about which you are concerned. Put the papers inside the box. During your prayer time each day, pick one or two slips of paper out of the box and pray for those impacted by injustices related to the issues, for policymakers, and for the ability to listen to how God might be calling you to respond.

THE SERVICE PRAYER: Seeing God in the poor and vulnerable can help move you to work for justice. Make a special effort to arrange to spend time with a vulnerable population. Before you serve, ask God to be with you and to help you to recognize his presence in every person with whom you interact. During your service, be especially attentive to God's presence in each person you serve, and the dignity that is in each of them. After your service time is over, go to a quiet place and think about the ways you saw God in each person. Try to remember details about individuals that you met. Ask for God's blessing on each and then ask God how he might be calling you to work to address the root causes of the challenges they face. www.wearsaltandlight.org/pray-together/nine-ways-pray

LABOR DAY PRAYER

This Labor Day, we pray for the men and women whose jobs have been impacted by the Coronavirus pandemic. We pray for their continued perseverance and determination as they continue to seek ways in which to participate in God's creative work:

Creator Lord, the source of all wisdom and purpose, and the blessing of those who labor;
 be with us in our work to guide and govern our world.
 Give to all people work that enhances human dignity and bonds us to one another.
 Give us pride in our work, a fair return for our labor, and joy in knowing that our work finds its source in you;
 through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

The Parish Office, School and Faith Formation will be closed on Monday, September 7th in observance of Labor Day.

UPDATE ON FR. ALAN PHILLIP

As many of you have heard Fr. Alan has been ill for some time. He asked us to pass on this message:

I had a biopsy taken in April and the doctor found malignant mesothelioma. It is apparently caused by asbestos. So maybe those old monasteries I lived in are the culprits. Anyway, I am scheduled to start chemo treatment next week, and we will see what happens. Right now, my problem is low blood count and fatigue. This will be a challenge.

Fr. Alan has helped out at St. Louise beginning in 1994. He asks that you keep him in your prayers. He appreciates all your prayers, good thoughts, and sympathy cards.

THANK YOU!

August 20 2020

Dear Fr. Robert Fulton,

On behalf of the clients served by Catholic Charities San Gabriel Region, we thank you and the St. Louise de Marillac Parish Community for your recent $10,000 grant.

We feel fortunate to have your support to bring stability to so many other clients that continue to reach out for our services. From February to June, we provided food, rental and utility assistance, and crisis housing support to over 10,000 individuals.

As impact of COVID-19 continues to affect the most vulnerable, we remain committed to keeping our service available. Thank you for answering the call to be a source of help and create hope for those in greatest need in the San Gabriel Valley.

THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

Fr. Martin Yina's Ordination Anniversary

Fr. Martin Yina celebrated his 25th Ordination Anniversary in July.

Many parishioners know that he began visiting St. Louise de Marillac in 1994 as a priest of Missionary Society of St. Paul. He was in residence as he was working towards his college degree. Over time he became a visiting priest mostly coming during the summer.

His religious order will hold a celebration in October to mark this happy occasion.

Please bring any cards or well wishes to the Parish Office any we can forward them to him.

Congratulations to Fr. Martin! Your vocation has been a blessing to the St. Louise community.

A MESSAGE OF LOVE

In the final verses of today's Gospel reading Jesus says that when two or three are gathered in his name, "there am I in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20). So we understand that fraternal correction is always undertaken with Jesus present to us.

Likewise, encouraging the good in others is not only the right thing for us to do, it is a necessity. The Lord tells the prophet Ezekiel that if he "does not speak out" to dissuade a person from evil, then he too will be held responsible.

We live in a "do your own thing" age when moral objectivity is often ignored. Clearly when the message we share with others is one of love, our motives cannot ever be misinterpreted. As St. Paul writes, "Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law" (Romans 13:10).

SAINT TERESA OF KOLKOTA

September 7

Raised in a deeply Catholic family in Albania, Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu joined the Sisters of Loreto in 1928 and took the name Teresa. The community sent her to Kolkata, India, where she taught children for two decades. In 1946 Teresa heard God's call to quench the thirst of Jesus by caring for the poorest of the poor. She left the Sisters of Loreto to rescue the sick and destitute in the slums of Kolkata — one at a time. Many volunteers soon joined her and she formed them into her religious order, the Missionaries of Charity. Teresa's manifest goodness and her unique media savvy attracted global attention, drawing many people to God. Many regard her as the greatest Catholic evangelist of the 20th century. She was beatified in 2003 and canonized in 2016.

SAINT PETER CLAVER (1581-1654)

September 9

Nearly two hundred years before the Declaration of Independence proclaimed “that all men are created equal,” two hundred fifty years before the Emancipation Proclamation mandated an end to slavery, three hundred fifty years before Martin Luther King’s “I Have a Dream,” and four hundred years before the election of an American president boasting African heritage, Peter Claver left his native Spain behind to volunteer for the Jesuit missions in Colombia.

There, he was horrified both by slavery as an institution and by the inhuman brutality inflicted upon the slaves. He solemnly vowed to become “the slave of the slaves,” and lived that vow heroically for close to forty years.

Not knowing their language, Peter began his ministry among the slaves by using the universal language of practical charity, providing medical care and a tangible though wordless assertion of their human dignity: “We spoke to them not with words but with our hands, kneeling beside them, bathing their faces and bodies, encouraging them with friendly gestures” (see Liturgy of the Hours, Volume 4, p. 2018). Then came evangelization and baptism. Holiness as human wholeness: Peter Claver’s enduring witness.

DID YOU KNOW?

Review your family rules and safety plans

The start of a new school year is a great time to review your family's rules and to go over safety plans for emergencies. Make sure all your children know what to do and who to contact if something is wrong. Go over the phone numbers they can call and what order to call them — 911, a parent's office or cell phone, a trusted neighbor or a family friend. Discuss where to find these numbers if they forget them. Create a code word that all family members will recognize to mean something is wrong or someone is in an uncomfortable or dangerous situation. For more ideas, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

For more information on other ways to keep kids safe, contact Linda Filkins, the Parish Safeguard Committee Chairperson at (626) 214-7846 or the Archdiocesan Safeguard the Children Office at (213) 637-7227. For particular help, call the Victims Assistance Office at (213) 637-7650.

FAITH FORMATION REGISTRATION

Is your child ready to prepare for the sacraments of Reconciliation, Eucharist or Confirmation? Faith Formation Registration will begin on Monday, August 17. Faith Formation also offers sessions for children who have already completed Sacrament preparation. Forms and more information will be posted on the St. Louise website. We offer opportunities for children in preschool, elementary, middle school, and high school. If you have any questions, please call the Faith Formation Office at 626-332-5822.
